Council Approves Plans of Commission; Discuss Rounding Corners

The recommendations adopted by the City Planning Commission at its regular meeting last Friday, March 28, and presented to the City Council this morning, was unanimously approved by that body.

Forest Avenue

The council also approved the commission's recommendation that the plan of Harry White for the improvement of Forest avenue between Glendale avenue and Brand boulevard be followed out with the following exception, that the curb on the north side of Forest avenue be placed six feet from the property line in place of at the present property line, making the avenue fifty feet from curb to curb; and that the school board be asked to deed the necessary ground to make rounded corners with a fifteen foot radius.

Rounded Corners

The question of rounded corners on San Fernando road through the commercial district was brought up by City Manager Stone, who suggested that in that zone where buildings are built right out to the line they should be left square, or at least only a triangle taken off. This was left to the City Planning Commission to work out.

On motion of Councilman Sam Davis, Ben S. Duruy, city engineer, was instructed to work out a tentative plan for a Campbell street flood drain.

Officers Quick to Answer Alarm of Hold-up at Bank

A thrill of excitement pervaded the neighborhood of the intersection of Brand boulevard and Broadway at 10:45 this morning, when four motorcycle officers, two of them mounted on one machine, came tearing up Brand boulevard, tumbled off their machines and into the Security Trust bank, each of them ready for a quick clutch at his shooting pistol.

DAMAGED

Beware! Booze Detector Reveals Amount Consumed

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Heralded as much more effective than the "truth detector," San Francisco physicians and police experimented today with the "booze detector," known as the metabular.

The new machine, to be used here in the campaign against drunken automobile drivers, determines the quantity of oxygen required by a "suspect" and thus reveals the amount of "home brew" or "bottled in bond" which has been consumed.

According to Dr. O. W. Ginsburg, inventor of the metabular, the degree of intoxication is registered by the demand in the system for oxygen to offset the consumption of heat, caused by the alcohol.

By feeding pure oxygen through a nozzle the exact degree of intoxication may be determined, physicians contended today.

MANY IDENTIFY STOLEN PROPERTY

Take Burglar Suspect to County Jail; Wife Is Allowed Freedom

C. H. Wickstrom of Tujunga, arrested early Sunday morning at his home, and later charged with a number of burglaries in Glendale following the discovery of alleged stolen goods in his home to the value of $3,000, was held under $5,000 cash or $10,000 property bond yesterday, and in default, was taken to the county jail in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, where he is held pending his arraignment before Judge F. H. Lowe tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Following her admission to Chief Fraser yesterday afternoon that her husband had served one term in San Quentin for burglary, being sentenced from Los Angeles in 1913, Wickstrom was allowed to proceed to her home in Tujunga to care for her two children. She stoutly denied that she had participated in any of the burglaries alleged to have been committed by her husband.

The detective bureau is thronged with people today identifying stolen property. Much of the loot recovered has already been identified by Glendale people. The officers made another trip to Wickstrom's home yesterday afternoon and brought in some more property. They spent the entire night sorting it out and listing it, in an effort to facilitate the identification of the great amount of loot recovered.

Glendale police officials are jubilant over the capture of Wickstrom and are confident that he is the man responsible for the majority of the burglaries reported in this city during the last six months. He still denied that he had stolen any of the property found in his home, when taken to the county jail, claiming that he

ALASKA TOWN IS SWEEPED BY FLAMES

Fishing Industry Believed Crippled As Ketchikan Goes Up in Smoke

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Ketchikan, the second largest city in Alaska, was swept by a disastrous fire Sunday night, according to official dispatches from the United States coast guard today.

Two government cutters stood by, furnishing armed guards to patrol the devastated area and prevent looting. The blaze was said to have been the most serious in the history of Alaska.

Coast guard officials believed that the fire will have a demoralizing effect on the salmon fishing industry, since many fishing expeditions are fitted out in Ketchikan every spring.

No further details of the fire nor mention of loss of life were contained in the official dispatches.

BOARD WILL REGULATE TRAFFIC

Seven Commissioners to Be Chosen to Make Up Comprehensive Plan

The latest advisory body to be inaugurated to assist the City Council in the administration of municipal affairs and to solve present day problems, is the Traffic Commission, authorized this morning by the unanimous vote of the council, on motion of Councilman Sam Davis.

The commission will consist of seven members, to be appointed by the council and, according to the wording of the motion, "will work with the council and the chief of police in an effort to obtain the best regulation of traffic possible, more satisfactory to the city and the citizens of Glendale."

Not in Criticism

"In making this motion," said Councilman Davis, "it is not with the intention of criticizing the present method of regulating traffic, but simply to focus thought on this grave subject and see if it can be improved. If this committee and council fail to offer any suggestions for the betterment of the existing regulations, it will at least remove a lot of criticism of the present plan which appears to be at fault."

The traffic situation has for some time worried the members of the council. They have dealt with the subject in rather a piecemeal manner, regulating parking on one street and ignoring another, not through any will of their own, they state, but through their inability to give the time to the matter that it deserves.

Seek Complete Plan

The members of the commission, who will be appointed very shortly, will be asked to deal with the whole situation and work out some comprehensive scheme to relieve the congested state of the downtown streets.

The methods in vogue in cities with traffic commissions will be studied and a general plan worked out, if possible, in order to give the most satisfaction possible to the merchants, the residents and the drivers.

Peck declared 10,000 acres of Osage and Ponca Indian lands in Oklahoma were obtained by fraud by the Miller brothers, owners of the "101 ranch," for which they pleaded guilty in the federal court there.

Daugherty, Peck charged, permitted the brothers to keep the lands, even after their conviction. Oil has since been struck on the land, Peck said, and the Miller brothers still hold it.

MARTHA'S CHOICE IS SERMON TOPIC

Occult Science Pastor Urges Attention to Nobler Things of Life

Taking "Choosing the Better Part" as her subject, and Aquarian Gospel 136:19-24 as her text, Mrs. Mabel Moore of the Occult Science of Christ church, 113 South Orange street, delivered an address last Sunday evening. Mrs. Moore said, in part:

"I think that all present are familiar with the story of Martha and Mary. Now, let us take a self-examination, introspect our minds, thoughts and life, and see if we, perchance, like Martha of old, may not be spending too much time with the smaller things of life. There comes a time in every life when a decision must be made, when one must reach a decision regarding the course and activities of his life.

"Now, I do not mean to say that the material affairs must not be given due attention, that the home duties should be neglected. However, if we are true and frank with ourselves, we shall see that we spend much of our valuable time in idle thoughts, in idle talk, and we are told in our Hebrew Bible that for every idle word we must give an account. At this point the question arises: What is an idle word? An idle word is one that is not constructive, one that will tear down in our own life or in the life of another something that has taken time and energy to construct, and we must look carefully, for we can tear down in so many little ways of which we are not conscious.

Waiting for Success
"There are many who wish to achieve spiritually, who wish to be able to speak words of truth and power, who wish, they say, to know the meaning of the problems of life and death, who, upon being told of the process by which one reaches those goals of attainment, say: 'Well, I really haven't the time to study now, I really am too busy to prepare myself to teach and to know.' That, my friends, is an attitude which is fatal to all spiritual progress and accomplishment."

Mrs. Moore concluded her sermon with the words: "In choosing the better part," we are not asked to neglect the material affairs of life, to slight the duties which are rightfully ours, we are asked only to use discrimination, to appraise all of the activities and duties of life at their true value, for it is through the portal of discrimination that one sets his foot upon the path that leads to the 'Better Part'."

PAINTINGS GAIN HIGH PRAISE IN STORE WINDOWS

Displays By Artists Win
Much Favorable Comment
from Local People

The pictures now on display in the windows of local merchants, as a part of the Fashion Week program, offer a great variety of subject and method and will repay the careful attention of passersby, according to Julia S. Nichols of the Glendale Art Association, who reviews the exhibit as follows:

The beautiful canvas by Nelle Warner, seen in the window of the Fashion Center, 202 South Brand, gives an unusual harmony of sky and water, while the tender treatment of snow-capped mountains that gives a decided effect of distance, offers a feeling of refinement that is always an appeal to the art lover.

Treatment in Color
In the window of the Monarch Auto Supply company, 204 South Brand, is shown a canvas by F. G. Royson Sayre, a scene depicting unique coloring of California's beach and sea, a strong appeal for the rugged coast and all it offers our appreciation of the real in nature's art. Here, too, is a large canvas by E. Franguinet, strong in treatment and color, which calls for distance of hanging, and offers much that sings of what art of today is seeking for.

The painting by C. Lillian Hounsell, here shown by the Guthrie company at 208 South Brand, gives the observer a study in the various means which the artist must make use of that life and activity may be realized. The coloring here is well taken.

In Robinson's window, 114 South Brand, is shown "The Spirit of Modern Art Seeking the Ideal," by Laura Lee Sweet. This conception or fancy is of the ethereal and carries one out and away where the endlessness of space sings of the manifold themes and diversity of expression that abide in the realm of art.

The poppy field shown at the Glendale Electric company, 132 North Brand, is a cheerful smile of California by Mrs. E. Billings. It is a little strong in color, but

Banker Dies

Death of B. D. Ervin brings genuine sorrow to large circle of friends in Glendale.

Rev. Millikan Will Conduct
Funeral Services at 3 P. M. Wednesday

Funeral services for B. D. Ervin of 633 North Kenwood street, who died at his home 8:30 o'clock Monday morning, March 31, 1924, aged 54 years, will be held 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 2, from the Little Church of the Flowers, Rev. L. J. Millikan of the Broadway Methodist church officiating, with interment at Forest Lawn cemetery.

The deceased was a director of the Federal Commercial & Savings bank and well known in Glendale, where he had lived for the past two years with his devoted wife, Mrs. Lucy Ervin, who has been prostrated by his sudden and unexpected death, which resulted from a heart attack following a light breakfast in bed.

Death Shocks Friends
Some two weeks ago Mr. Ervin had undergone a treatment for diabetes at a local sanitarium and was thought to have been much improved. His sudden death has been a great shock to friends and acquaintances generally, as well as his immediate family, as he was thought to be out of danger.

B. D. Ervin was born in Columbus, Miss., November 6, 1870. He is survived, in addition to the widow, by his mother, Mrs. Mary Ervin, and a sister, Mrs. J. T. Armstrong, of Columbus, Miss.; and by an uncle, T. O. Anderson of San Diego.

RECORD TOURIST TRAVEL TO SOUTH FOR THIS YEAR

H. L. Legrand Tells About Plans Being Made to Care for Traffic

The greatest influx of tourists and the largest Glendale exodus to the east will be experienced by railroads during the 1924 season, if preparations for handling the travelers is any criterion.

For the first time, it is planned about April 23, the official opening date of the tourist season, to start an entire car of Glendale passengers that will make a through trip to Chicago. A coach of this description will hold fifty passengers. A final decision on the allotment of the car to Glendale has not yet been made by Southern Pacific officials, H. L. Legrand, Glendale ticket agent, said today.

Many Coming Here
The exodus to the east, however, will be as nothing compared to the tremendous number of tourists who will visit Southern California and Glendale during this season, Legrand said. The influx has already started. Every passenger train pulling into Glendale brings eastern people who come here on visits. Real estate dealers report frequent sales to that class of trade.

"The passenger traffic both to and from the coast was the heaviest in the history of the Southern Pacific during 1923," said Legrand. "The traffic this year will be far greater. Extensive plans have been made by the Southern Pacific to prevent any serious congestion of the passenger travel, although some of the trains now coming to the coast are filled daily to capacity."

Plan Glendale Coach
"The movement to the east is going to be bigger this year than ever before. The Glendale coach will be a new feature. If we get it we will attach it to our fast

Would YOU Spend a Dollar a Year To Make Glendale An Even Greater City?

If we 50,000 Glendalians would each year give a sum of money equal to what most of us just spend for chewing gum in six months, TO PROVIDE A NATIONAL ADVERTISING FUND, we would soon rank with San Diego, Sacramento and Long Beach in population, because of our strategic location and our exceptional natural advantages. Glendale is ready for national exploitation. She has everything Los Angeles has to offer—and MORE. Hollywood is now erecting height limit buildings—twenty million dollars' worth of big structures are to be built on and near Hollywood boulevard within the next fifteen months. And Hollywood isn't even on a railroad! But, Hollywood is one of the two best advertised cities on earth. Glendale is a main-line city and will be the passenger starting point for a vast territory. Hollywood will come to Glendale to take a train. Glendale has every metropolitan advantage that a BIG city must have. Why not capitalize Glendale's advantages by attracting people here from every corner of the United States? NATIONAL ADVERTISING WILL DO IT! It will do for Glendale just what it has done and is doing for Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Barbara, San Francisco and other smaller cities. The Glendale Evening News has devoted many columns to furthering the interests of this community. We shall continue to do so. Also, all of us should do all in our power to advance Glendale. It is a civic obligation. We should meet it. As we have pointed out, this city has the advantages, all we have to do is to "tell the world." Those behind a move to secure a substantial national advertising fund should be given hearty support—AND DOLLARS.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are prominent in club and fraternal affairs in Glendale and their election as presiding officers over Omar Shrine augurs well for the coming Shrine year.

WOMEN TO HEAR NOTED SPEAKER ON WORLD TOPIC

Mrs. Willoughby Rodman to Deliver Address Before
Local College Club

Glendale College Women's club members and guests are going to hear a wonderful address at the next meeting, Saturday, April 12, when Mrs. Willoughby Rodman will be their honored luncheon guest and speaker.

Mrs. Rodman, who was in attendance at the Hague Peace conference, and later toured the world to study the activities of women, has stirred the large audiences that have greeted her on her lecture tour of the United States, under the auspices of the European Relief committee. At present she is giving a series of lectures in Los Angeles for the benefit of the Russian refugee students in Europe.

World Wide Interests
In addition to attending the conference at the Hague, Mrs. Rodman was engaged in Red Cross work and has the honor of being the only woman ever received by the Caliph in Constantinople.

She will speak to the Glendale club on "World-wide Interests of Women."

Mrs. Hugh Blue, an alumna of Alexandra College, Ireland, is to serve as chairman of the after luncheon hour. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Claude Andrews representing Oregon Agricultural college; Mrs. H. D. Schroeder, Western college; Miss Mildred Hughes, Mills college; Mrs. W. M. Litchfield, University of Washington; Dr. Irene Meyers, Yale university; Mrs. Fannie Sloan, New Mexico Agricultural college; Miss Hazel White, hospitality chairman of the club and Mrs. R. L. Holland, courtesy chairman of the club.

To Invite Guests
Because of the wide appeal of Mrs. Rodman's subject and because of her ability as a speaker and a representative of American women, the College club is hoping for a large attendance and all members are urged to bring guests, if not to the luncheon, to the meeting later.

Plans for the meeting were made yesterday at the meeting of the board of directors of the club at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hayward, 428 West Lexington drive.

There were present Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, president, who presided; Mesdames E. B. Sutton, W. E. Lusby, D. F. Reichard, Helen

"What is the world coming to?" cry the alarmists. Well, from where we sit it appears that it is coming to California.

A magazine writer tells us that automobiles run into millions. Californians, with their good roads and year 'round motoring weather, are well aware of this. Some of them wish they didn't, especially those convalescing.

Shades of William Shakespeare! The feminine bobbed hair is to disappear—but in its place will be a close-cut or "feminine shingle." No more will there be switches, puffs, curls, pins and nets. So says "Good Sense," in a communication to the Bobbed-Hair Editor of The Glendale Evening News. Her letter contains a back-handed slap directed at the cheek of Thomas Watts, Glendale, who recently declared himself against all bobbed-haired wives and maidens, and urged that bobbed hair be made a ground for divorce.

"X. Y. Z." who says she is "bobbed-haired, married and happy," adds her bit to the feminine storm that Mr. Watts attracted to himself when he dared to declaim against barbers' clippers for wives. She declares there "aren't any words in the dictionary to express my thoughts of Mr. Watts or any man who objects to the rights of the female species."

"Good Sense," who explains in detail her theory of closely cropped heads among women, also advances another market for Southern California crude petroleum. Her letter follows:

Pet Bulldog Runs Up Against Law In Trip to Riverside

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carson of this city motored to the Mission Inn at Riverside yesterday for luncheon. It was Mr. Carson's day away from the Glendale theatre console. Arriving at Claremont, with a pet French bulldog in their machine, they found a cordon of officers halting the public at the San Bernardino county line and turning back all "animals" susceptible to carrying the "hoof and mouth" disease.

In order to continue their trip Mr. and Mrs. Carson had to leave the dog with a member of the postoffice force until their return in the afternoon. This will be a tip for other motorists to leave their pets at home.

The women's auxiliary of the camp, of which Mrs. Martha Warren is president, will meet at the same hour Wednesday night, and in the same building as the veterans.

HELP CHILDREN

Classes for subnormal children are maintained with the assistance of state funds in nine states—Missouri, Minnesota, Montana, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Massachusetts. In all of these states the money is given with the provision that the classes must be properly organized and only teachers with special training placed in charge of them.

Some of Our Achievements

Says "Common Cent":

"Remember when America entered the war on the side of the Allies? Remember the gigantic task that had to be done? Millions of men turned into a fighting force, fed, clothed, lodged, paid a monthly salary, trained and transported to Europe, given guns and shell. Money, this too—untold millions. And my brothers 'Common Cents' and I helped with the rest."

PLEDGE SUPPORT TO COOLIDGE IN PRESIDENT RACE

244 Delegates Already Lined Up for Nomination of Chief Executive

Official figures of the Coolidge campaign committee show that 244 delegates to the national Republican convention have been pledged to President Coolidge. To date, all delegates have been pledged to the chief executive with the possible exception of those named at the South Dakota primary. Information from the general Coolidge headquarters at Chicago indicates that the result in the middle western state has been so close that an official recount of all votes will be necessary before the exact result of the primary will be known. Unofficial figures indicate that a plurality of less than 2,000 was received by Senator Johnson. The Coolidge campaign committee in South Dakota declares this figure is inaccurate.

May Split Votes

In the event that the official recount shows the majority for Senator Johnson is correct it is possible that the South Dakota votes will be divided between the President and the Californian, according to information received in Los Angeles. In case the entire majority goes to Senator Johnson the total number of delegates pledged to him to date will be 13.

The following is a list of states and the number of delegates that have been pledged to President Coolidge: Minnesota, 27; Kansas, 23; Iowa, 24; Colorado, 15; Kentucky, 26; Virginia, 17; New Hampshire, 21; the Philippines, 2; North Carolina, 22; North Dakota, 13; South Carolina, 11; Louisiana, 13; Idaho, 11; Mississippi, 12; Missouri, 6; Georgia, 2; and New Mexico, 9.

Will Speed Up

Coolidge campaign managers in California announced on the first day of the current month that activities which are being conducted in behalf of the candidacy of President Calvin Coolidge will be intensified in preparation for the May primary.

A conference of the presidents and secretaries of all of the Coolidge clubs of Los Angeles county was conducted last Saturday at the Los Angeles county Coolidge headquarters. On the same day a list of 42 persons who will direct the work of the Tenth congressional district was made public. Reports coming to the Southern California campaign committee indicate that intensive work is under way in Ventura, Santa Barbara, Riverside, Orange, San Diego, Imperial and San Bernardino counties. In the latter county a new campaign organization has been formed and it is expected that this body will open campaign headquarters in the near future.

Boulder Dam as Issue

Congressman Walter F. Lineberger, at a recent luncheon conducted by the Coolidge forces of Los Angeles, declared that President Calvin Coolidge favors the Colorado river development along the lines which have been suggested and recommended by Secretary of Commerce Hoover. The congressman declared that it is his opinion that Herbert Hoover possesses more complete knowledge of the proposed development than any other one man. President Coolidge, according to the ninth congressional district representative, is adhering closely to the opinions of his adviser. "Regardless of how the Colorado river development is undertaken," Congressman Lineberger said, "it is certain that it will be one way which will benefit the greatest number of persons interested."

Important Dates

Important dates in the presidential campaign are as follows: April 1—Wisconsin primary; 29 Republican delegates. April 1—Last day to file candidates' affidavits with secretary of state. April 5—Last day to register. April 7—Michigan primary; 33 Republican delegates. April 8—Illinois and Nebraska primaries; 61 and 19 Republican delegates. April 14—President Coolidge to speak before Daughters of American Revolution. April 15—President Coolidge to speak at Arizona celebration before Washington monument. Einstein Idea Is Contradicted by New Space Theory

Stefan Christesco

PARIS, April 1.—Einstein, whose theory of relativity is accounted one of the most important ideas to be advanced in this country, has a rival who is attracting a great deal of attention in Europe.

Stefan Christesco, a Roumanian scientist, who has lived and worked in France for many years, has just published a new scientific work that is worrying some of the exponents of the puzzling Einstein explanations of organization of the worlds.

It is called "La Lumiere relative et L'Experience de Michelson." It is a new point of view of the experiments of Michelson, in relation with the systems of Kepler, Newton, Laplace, Lorentz, Einstein and Minkowski and the cellular organization. He deals with the instability of atoms, cosmic matter, microcosms, electro-dynamic basis in the formation of worlds, macrocosms and their evolution, the phenomena of cosmic fluorence and cerebral photophorence, the evolution of ether and the phenomena of light and gravitation, etc.

In all this, besides putting forth his own theories, he contradicts those of Einstein.

ARTISTIC SHADES ON DISPLAY HERE

Mrs. James F. Armstrong Has Pleasing Exhibit In Shafe's Window

One of the most interesting exhibits of parchment shades shown in Glendale is the work of Mrs. James F. Armstrong of 120 North Adams street, now on display in the window at Shafe's stationery store, at 123-A South Brand boulevard.

Mrs. Armstrong's parchment shades are something different from the usual shade, and her exhibit is attracting wide attention in Glendale by both artists and lovers of art. Whether it be a conventional, flower or fruit design or a California landscape, her color expression is most pleasing and the colors seem to be blended perfectly.

China on Display In addition to the parchment shade work, Mrs. Armstrong has some excellent pieces of china on display done in the enamel and luster work. She also has some artistic polychrome articles.

Mrs. Armstrong has been a resident of Glendale for the past year, coming here from Los Angeles where her work has gained wide recognition. She has filled large orders for art work in private homes as well as for some of the larger furniture and department stores.

SHOOT CRAZED MAN SEATTLE, April 1.—J. D. Temberly, an elderly laborer, was shot to death in the Puget Sound Electric company's yards at Kent, near here, when he ran amuck with an axe and inflicted wounds on Night Marshal F. M. Imhoff which may prove fatal.

DE LA HUERTA SAFE NEW ORLEANS, April 1.—Fear that Adolfo De La Huerta, Mexican revolutionist, has been lost at sea was dispelled here this afternoon when a commercial agent of the revolutionary government announced that he now is in the state of Chiapas, Mexico.

TAX REGULATION WILL BE SOUGHT BY MOTOR LINES

Association Plans to Submit Initiative Measure at November Election

The Motor Carriers' Association representing the 677 operators of motor stage and motor truck lines that now comprise the motor transportation industry in the state, has determined to submit to the people at the election next fall an initiative measure to regulate the system under which that industry is taxed, it was formerly announced today.

Petitions for the measure which is to be known officially as the "taxation of highway transportation companies amendment" to the state constitution, are about to be placed in circulation throughout the state.

A total of 80,000 signatures is necessary to secure a place for the initiative measure on the ballot.

In a statement on the purposes of the association, Arthur H. Samish, its secretary and manager said today:

Outlines Policies "An explanation of the reasons for the initiation of the present campaign by the motor carriers will afford an explanation of the motor carriers' taxation amendment itself.

"The amendment is brief, simple and to the point. It proposes simply to put the motor carriers on the same taxation basis, with reference to the state, as the other public utilities.

"It will establish and maintain the present rate at which the motor carriers are taxed until that rate is changed in the future by a two-third vote of the two houses of the state legislature.

May Boost Rates "The present tax rate of 4 per cent for motor carriers was fixed at the last session of the legislature under the Duval bill. It may be changed merely by a majority vote at any future session of the legislature and may even be increased at any session to the point where the motor carriers would be taxed out of business and the immensely valuable services which they now render to the community be either hopelessly crippled or forced into abandonment.

"The taxes of all the other utilities, however, may be increased only upon two-thirds of the legislature so voting.

"The present taxation system of the state government—relieving the small property owner and general tax payer of state taxes, and placing the major burden of the state's revenues on the public utilities—is set forth in what has come to be known as "Tax Amendment No. 1" of the state constitution.

"This system of corporation taxes and the existing amendment were adopted by the people before the motor carrier industry had developed or even been conceived. Consequently the new method of transportation was not included as one of the public utilities.

Haphazard Methods "As a result, the method of taxing the motor carriers has been uncertain and haphazard and the men who have their hundreds of thousands of dollars invested in this industry have no certainty from one session of the legislature to the next that they will not be taxed out of existence.

"The other public utilities contributing to the support of the state are not subject to this uncertainty. It is only likely that, in the face of some real and genuine need for an increase in the state revenues, a two-thirds vote of the two houses of the legislature will be given for an increase in their rates.

"Independently, entirely of the merits or demerits of the present tax system of the state, the motor carriers feel that, being subject to it as the other public utilities are, they should be subject also to the same protections the others are subject to.

"It will be borne in mind of course by the public that the motor carriers and their passenger and freight rates are always subject to regulation by the State Railroad Commission.

Builds Up State In conjunction with his statement on the taxation initiative, Secretary Samish made public some interesting figures upon the growth and development of the motor transportation industry which has now become one of the major factors in the development and upbuilding of the state, particularly in the rural sections and among the smaller communities.

There are now scarcely a town, or crossroads worthy of the name of town, in all the state of California that does not have its motor stage lines. Out of a total of 1832 cities and towns in California, no less than 786 are served by motor stage and freight lines alone—they have now no other common means of transportation.

The motor transportation industry represents an investment of about $14,000,000. Last year the motor stage lines of the state carried over 20,000,000 passengers—which argues more than anything else could the degree to which the industry has become an integral part of the life and growth of California.

Public Interested These are facts, Secretary Samish pointed out, indicating why it is as much the concern of the public to see that the motor transportation is not unjustly taxed as it is the concern of the industry itself.

"If the industry suffers, the public suffers," said Samish. "If the industry is taxed out of ex-

ENLARGED ORGAN IN THEATER AIDS MUSIC PROGRAMS

Wm. A. Howe Adds Features To Bring Equipment to Highest Standard

By GIL A. COWAN Of The Evening News Staff. Real pride in a real organ equipment for his theatre is expressed today by William A. Howe, lessee and manager of the popular Glendale photoplay house. Additions have been made to the Estey organ, built especially for the Glendale theatre in the factories at Brattleboro, Vt., and shipped by express to this city because of their value.

The changes have been made during the last three months without interrupting a performance, although the actual work was a month's labor on the part of expert organ installation men. They have given the Glendale theatre a complete new choir organ, in addition to the four existing organs which are the swell, great, pedal and echo.

The additional racks include the vox humana, clarinet, saxophone, flue and unda maris stops, and a complete new set of chimes. The changes in no way affect the echo organ, but give to the beautiful instrument qualities which will surely be appreciated by music lovers who attend the Glendale theatre to hear Paul Carson play.

Add Grand Piano In addition to the organ, a new Sohmer concert grand piano has been added to the musical equipment for which Mr. Carson is duly grateful when accompanying the Friday and Saturday evening vaudeville programs. He gave a recital on the new equipment last Sunday evening which was well received.

Respecting the investment which Mr. Howe has made in his playhouse, Mr. Carson says: "There are individual features of the Estey organ in the Glendale theatre which cannot be excelled anywhere in the world. It is by far the largest organ in any suburban theatre or elsewhere in the southland."

And certainly one can say that the music heard in the Glendale theatre cannot be excelled anywhere for which the public have both Mr. Howe and Mr. Carson to thank.

Domestic Difficulties Decreasing Is Report

NEW YORK, April 1.—Why men leave home is an open question, according to Leonard McGee, chief counsel for the Legal Aid society, whose annual report for 1923 today indicated a decrease of domestic difficulty cases of 87.3 as compared with the preceding year.

In some cases married men leave home because of incompatibility; in others, other women lure them, McGee explained. In the majority of cases he attributed the desertion to "just plain cowardice—a man with a guilty conscience who couldn't overcome the complaints of a neglected wife."

The society, which acts as first aid to deserted families, last year issued a pamphlet compiled by McGee, entitled, "Ten Commandments for Wives" and "Ten Commandments for Husbands." These were followed by a declaration that mothers-in-law and other "in-laws" were mostly responsible for domestic friction.

In addition to the 4 per cent tax on gross earnings to which commercial motor stage and bus operators are subject under the present Duval bill, they are also subject to the gasoline tax, the regular state motor vehicle taxes and license fees.

COUPLE MARRIED 30 YEARS, MANY HELP CELEBRATE

Guests at Wedding Ceremony
Are Present at Dinner
On Anniversary

The celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baldwin on Sunday at their home, 211 East Acacia street, was marked by a number of interesting features.

About fifty of their relatives and friends were entertained at an elaborate turkey dinner, a number of whom had been guests thirty years ago on March 26, 1894 at the wedding ceremony in Los Angeles.

Miss Lucy Dirksmyer of Los Angeles, who was the bridesmaid on that occasion, and E. F. Baldwin, brother of the groom, who served as the best man, were both present Sunday.

Another interesting feature was the presence of their five children, four of whom are married and were accompanied by their families.

Mrs. George Brown of Los Angeles, Mrs. Frank E. Miller of Torrance, Mrs. George Leaton, Miss Lura Boyd of Glendale and Ed Baldwin of Glendale.

Here Three Years
Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin have lived in Glendale three years, and previous to that time in Los Angeles and Hollywood. They lived for twenty-two years in the same house on Crocker street, Los Angeles, where their children were born.

Beautiful gifts of linen and a pearl handled carving set were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin by their children and guests.

Mr. Baldwin's gift to his wife of thirty years was a pearl ring.

The celebration had been planned as an out door affair on March 26, but weather conditions rendered that impracticable and the turkey dinner was served Sunday in the house.

Many Guests Present
The guests invited by Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were Miss Lucy Dirksmyer, E. C. Baldwin, Mrs. Mary D. Burns, Mrs. Henrietta B. Guasti, Mrs. A. A. Pepper, George Pepper, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Brown, Jacob Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pepper, E. F. Gates as chairman of tickets; Mrs. C. O. Kling, chairman of publicity, and Mrs. Colin Cable, chairman of ushers.

Mrs. Gates announces that tickets can be secured at the office of the clubhouse, from members of the department and at the door the nights of the play.

March Building Permits Come Within $32,000 of Reaching Million Mark

Despite the fact that building permits on the last day of the month issued by H. C. Vandewater, municipal building superintendent, amounted to $120,000, the total for the month fell short of the million dollar mark by $32,000.

The amount of permits issued during the month is so close to $1,000,000, however, that every one connected with building activity in the city is gratified at the result, and predict that the drive for the year is going on very well.

Total to Date
During the first three months of the current year permits totaled $2,803,309. The following table will give an idea of the relative activity of 1923 and this year:

	1923	1924
January	$1,024,336	$1,029,533
February	1,019,813	805,706
March	1,036,475	983,050
Total	$3,080,624	$2,803,309

It will be seen by this that permits last year exceeded those of 1924 by approximately $280,000, but in 1923 several large permits were issued during the first quarter which boosted the total considerably. The figures announced this year indicate a normal advance in general activity over that of last year, although the aggregate is not so large.

$5 PER HOUR CITY'S OFFICIALS

Disposal of Wedding Fee Taxes Best Legal Minds
in Aldermanic Group

The usual order of things when there are a dozen places for every dollar, was reversed this morning, when the City Council was presented with $5, and they didn't know what to do with it.

Several days ago Judge F. H. Lowe obligingly married a blushing couple in his office. After the knot was securely tied, the groom dug down in his jeans and presented hizzoner with a brand new $5 bill.

The judge, in turn, presented it to the city, via the Council. After considerable debate as to whether it came under the classification of amusement or luxury tax, dog tax or gratuity, the Council referred the matter to Ray L. Morrison, city attorney, for disposal. On his recommendation the crisp bill will be turned into its proper channel.

BETTER SCHOOLS

The desire for better schools has made schoolhouse planning a highly specialized branch of the architect's profession, according to School Life, published by the United States Bureau of Education. With that specialization have come a few principles of comfort, utility, and beauty that are worked out in ways most suited to the particular plan. In the northern states the building is usually of brick with two or more stories and a basement, compact, well heated, and arranged to provide for comfort and efficient work in a rigorous climate. In the southern states it may be a low, one-story building with no basement and arranged on the unit plan. In the west and southwest it is often of the mission style.

TEMPLARS HOSTS AT BANQUET TO VISITING MASONS

Glendale Chosen as Place
For Annual Picnic of Southland Knights

Glendale has been selected by Knights Templar of Southern California for their big fall field meet and picnic outing. It was made known at the meeting last night of Glendale Commandery, No. 53, in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard, where they entertained as guests members of Unity chapter, No. 116, Royal Arch Masons of Glendale, and the Knights Templar commandery of Long Beach.

The field meet was held last year at Covina and the gathering next October in Glendale will be the first time the annual event has ever taken place in Glendale.

Members of Unity chapter were expected as guests last night, so the real surprise feature of the evening was when Long Beach commandery, led by Past Commanders Aubrey R. Parks and Isaac, arrived with a band and two drill teams.

There were 175 Sir Knights and guests seated for the 6:30 o'clock dinner.

Parade on Streets
After dinner there was a street parade on Brand boulevard and later a band concert in the temple. Then the drill teams adjourned to the gymnasium at the Harvard High school, while the Royal Arch Masons conferred the Royal Arch degree in the temple.

The drill practice was engaged in preparatory to the Grand Commandery meeting April 16 and 17 in Pasadena. The sessions will be at the Huntington hotel, and field competitive drills will be held in Tournament park.

JENNISON HOUSE IS LANDMARK OF EARLY GLENDALE

Residence of Pioneer Family Retains Atmosphere of Warm Friendship

By "OLD TIMER"
Of The Evening News Staff.
Just as the jig-saw puzzle, the picture is incomplete and confusion reigns until each little piece is in its proper place, so often in piecing together the stories of the early days in Glendale, "Old Timer" finds that unexpectedly a little link that is essential to the picture.

A number of people have spoken to the writer of the old road leading from Los Feliz or Tropic avenue, as it used to be called north of the Southern Pacific tracks, through the Richardson tract to where the "Yellow House with the Mansard Roof" stood before it was moved to its present site in the heart of the business district of old Tropic.

Others who read of the two landmarks already spoken of, "The House with the Open Shutters" and "The Yellow House," called attention to a third landmark in this section, the red brick house on the present street of Gardena, near the corner of Los Feliz, which was claimed to be older than either of the other two. To substantiate or disprove this claim and to learn if possible about much disputed road. Old Timer followed, as closely as the subdivision of this section would allow, the row of stately trees which later residents have left standing in their back yards and came at last to the little six-room brick house, no longer red but neatly painted white, of which mention had been made.

Moved by an impulse and wishing to verify my discovery, a knock at the door was answered by a gentle little lady who kindly gave me the information that this was the Jennison place and further stated that she had lived there twenty years and her husband had come there two years previous to that. Kindly acceding to the request for further information the visitor learned that the house had been built over thirty-five years ago and stood on a street known in the early days as "Los Angeles" and evidently the old street on which the "Yellow House with the Mansard Roof" stood in the old days when it was occupied by members of that pioneer family, the Richardsons, before its removal.

Since I changed
When that part of the Richardson tract was subdivided and the streets of Eulalia, El Bonito, Cerritos, etc., were opened, the old road made a jog at Eulalia and that portion of the old road where the brick house stood was changed to Gardena. The rest of the way was sold off as town lots. I purchased the house about 1901 and two years later, the hostess, Mrs. E. M. Jennison, came to California from near Buffalo, N. Y., and has made her home ever since in the brick house. Mr. Jennison died some years ago, and Mrs. Jennison's granddaughter, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison, are residing with her.

Homesick at First
Mrs. Jennison confessed to a little homesickness in her new surroundings twenty years ago. The place was in the midst of a 700-acre strawberry patch worked by Japanese laborers and it was all so new and strange and she had left her children, grown up to be sure, in the east.

On the place was a wonderful well of water. A windmill which is still standing pumped the water into a huge tank supplying the house with modern conveniences. But a further bit in the puzzle picture developed. Although the home with piano, phonograph, radio, with a loud speaker which would almost arouse the ghosts of former residents, was in evidence, yet the visitor observed in the corner of the cozy sitting room, with its old-fashioned fireplace, not however the big log fireplace of the pioneers, but the mantel and polished iron faced fireplace of the '80s, an organ of the style of that date and the feeling that had haunted the visitor that she had met the hostess before was strengthened and Mrs. Jennison was identified as the gentle little lady who for the past eleven years had been the organist, or rather the pianist, for the primary department of the Tropic Presbyterian Sunday school. Ten times has she played the march when Mrs. S. E. Brown, the head of this department, has presented a class annually for graduation into the main school.

Mrs. Jennison studied music in Friendship village, near Buffalo, and whether or no it is the "Friendship Village" of Zona Gale's delightful stories it might well have been, and the beloved organist of the primary department, it is hoped on the coming children's day, the coming June, will once again play the march that ushers the little ones on to the next step in their religious education.

And the last bit of mosaic in Old Timer's picture puzzle was solved by a chance encounter with Mrs. Ella Richardson, at the opening of the new Southern Pacific station, Thursday night, and the information which Mrs. Jennison was unable to give was furnished and the claim of the brick house to be the first of the three landmarks was confirmed as it was built in 1885 by a pioneer by the name of Gilbert whose connection with the early days is a story in itself.

President of U. S. C. Will Deliver Address at Early Meeting

Easter morn will be welcomed in Glendale with music and song and fitting address and reading on Mount Forest Lawn in Forest Lawn Memorial park, and Glendalians old and young will be interested in the tentative plan outlined for this sunrise service.

Gathering on the hilltop at 5:14 o'clock, Sunday morning, April 20, the Easter worshippers will witness the sun rise as cornet sounds forth across the valley.

Following the cornet solo the Glendale Community chorus of 150 voices will sing "Unfold Ye Portals."

Dr. Rufus B. Von Klein Smid, president of the University of southern California, will deliver the Easter address, and Frederick Warde, famous actor, will read Henry Van Dyke's "God of the Open Air."

Orchestra to Play
Rev. J. H. Livingston, president of the Glendale Ministerial association, will give the invocation. The final musical number will be "The Heavens are Telling."

Glendale's community symphony orchestra of fifty musicians, directed by J. Arthur Myers, will take part in the service, making its first public appearance.

Co-operating in the services are Glendale churches and Community Service.

BURBANK ELECTION SLATED FOR APRIL 14TH

2527 Voters Register as Date to Select Officials of City Nears

A total of 2527 Burbank voters will be entitled to participate in the balloting of April 14, when numerous city officials will be elected, according to figures received from the office of F. S. Webster, city clerk.

Precinct No. 4 heads the list with a registration of 735, while Precinct No. 8 trails the procession with but 5. Following is the tabulation:

Precinct No. 1, 558; No. 2, 237; No. 3, 396; No. 4, 735; No. 5, 132; No. 6, 167; No. 7, 226; No. 8, 5; Moreland, 21; total, 2527.

Talk on Bible

The last regular meeting of the Burbank Women's club was given over to a very interesting discussion of the Bible by M. W. Ronzee of Los Angeles, just returned from a teaching tour of the world, who declared that the great book was full of prophecies that have come true.

Mr. Ronzee quoted passages to show that the ancients had anticipated the automobile, the aeroplane and the submarine. The retention of the nationality of the Jews, their return to Palestine, and the new king on the throne of Egypt were cited as prophecies that had come to pass as well as, just now, the fulfilling of the prophecies concerning knowledge, travel, inventions, wars, famines, earthquakes, the league of nations, and other events and conditions through which the world is passing; while the prophecy as to the next war being one entirely waged from the air was brought to the attention of the audience.

Three Seek P. O. Job

A trio of Burbank residents would try their hand at running the local postoffice—R. W. Colburn, E. I. Barras and L. M. Rothenburg. All have at one time or another held positions with the government and the general consensus of opinion seems to be that whoever Uncle Sam appoints to sort Burbank's mail will do it well.

Manager J. W. Charleville of the Chamber of Commerce reports that the goal of $14,000, set in the recent budget drive, will be reached before the year is up, as a total of $11,204 was obtained in the three-day period. The reds won over the blues, with 11,158 points to their credit, Mr. Charleville reports.

There were 201 new names placed on the Chamber of Commerce list, of which 139 were $20 memberships and 62 were $10 memberships. The new members added to the members already on the roll make a total of 371 now backing up the chamber in its work.

COMMENT That's All Fighting Vs. Writing Watch for More Floods Youngsters, Get Experience About Editorial Pages

By Gil A. Cowan

Jack Dempsey gets a million dollars for a film! We get a million ideas of becoming a box fighter—and then we take stock and find out that as a fighter we are likely a much better writer.

Writing is a favorite pastime with those who have nothing better to do, although a few are paid for so doing. Likewise fighting. Every man (or woman, for that matter) to their game.

Between punching an adversary in the squared ring, wherever that may be, and punching a typewriter any place we happen to be, we will choose the latter as the more pleasant occupation.

The typewriter doesn't strike back.

It is a nice storm they have been enjoying in Pittsburgh and other points east. Gosh all hemlock, what a spasm Ma Nature has been staging the last year! And wait until the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri rivers, not to mention a half-dozen others, begin to overflow this spring.

Thankful we may be that flood control is possible in southern California. Think of trying to control the Ohio—the beautiful Ohio, when it is Ohsohigho. And a few more ohos. We refuse to be worried in Glendale.

But we should be worrying about voting the county flood control bond issue. It simply has to be carried. It being proposed to build numerous check dams in mountain canyons, we may paraphrase the words of the Carolina highway official who had as his motto "Do it. Dam it. Do it."

Young men and women! A line for you who are in high school. Learn to do something and do it well. Work evenings, work Saturdays, work in vacation, and GET REAL EXPERIENCE.

There is little competition for the efficient and capable worker. He is able to do things which are about 20 per cent of the populace. The other 80 per cent are unable or incompetent or something. Lazy, lax, unwilling to earn an honest living, there has become a great body of drones in this nation who are competing for the "be snap" if a drone may be considered in the running at all.

And many employers would rather have a youngster, willing to work and willing to learn, than one who has reached 25 or over who doesn't KNOW HOW to do anything.

You may learn this lesson too late in life, although there should be no age limit on a person learning how to WORK. And if you can master one job, there is hope for something higher.

A hostler in a livery stable at middle-age isn't very pleasant to think about, is it? Yet one general agent of a life insurance company in a far-distant state was doing just that thing thirty years ago.

Another general insurance agent, rated as a millionaire, came to California as a muleteer. One of the world's most noted doctors worked his way through college as a masseur.

Sure, they all learned HOW to work. That's why they succeeded. Some of you folks come from Kentucky. Glendale people come from the four corners of the earth. Kentucky is one of them. It has the corner on blue grass, racing horses and gentlemen. It has a corner on thrills, too, except that since Irvin S. Cobb quit reporting Breathitt county occurrences they have lost a lot of their flavor in fiction.

Getting back to our thought, there was a day when "Marse Henry" Watterson wrote editorials for the Louisville Courier-Journal. Remember those stickfuls of vitriol splashing forth in a political year, as well as the two-score other years?

Well, Watterson is no more in the columns of the Courier-Journal. And we read the editorial page without a thrill. Nothing there but the talky-talk you find in every other editorial page nowadays. Nobody wants to write editorials unless it is necessary. Lots of people don't read them. At any rate the "chicken editor" and "the bobbed hair editor" and the "Why I Live in Glendale editor" get a lot of mail. We don't. Maybe a letter a week.

Wonder if people agree with us? Or is it because we say little for them to disagree with? Some day we'll say something harsh to stir you up. Just like "Marse Henry" used to do. And wow! Then we'll wish we hadn't.

Anyway, it isn't nice for friends to fight. And we would rather have friends for The Glendale Evening News than anything else in the world.

Would-Be Suicide Changes His Mind

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—Changing his mind after he had drained the contents of two bottles of iodine in an effort to end his life, Peter Denson, 35, crawled 3 miles from an isolated section of White Point to the San Pedro fire department station for aid during the early hours yesterday morning and collapsed. He is reported to be dying. Despondency over ill health and inability to secure employment was blamed by Denson for his act.

EAGLE ROCK CLUBWOMEN WILL AID DAHLIA SHOW

Plan to Interest Students

The Women's Twentieth Century club will again sponsor the annual Dahlia show, it has been decided, following lack of response to an appeal that a dahlia organization be created. The club women will have the co-operation of the Parent-Teacher association, the object being to promote among school children an interest in dahlia growing.

A club committee will have full charge of arrangements for the 1924 show, the Parent-Teacher association confining its activities to promulgating dahlia enthusiasm throughout the local school system.

A recital of her pupils is being planned by Mrs. Elgie Lowry Fischer, of the School of Oral Arts. Those who will participate are Marion Bailey, Betty Thornburg, Virginia Dixon, Mary Elizabeth Wilson, Dorothy Davis, Elizabeth Allen, Nadine Demmel, Roselind Wolfe, Mary Ellison, Audrey Stacks, Phillis Crawford, Virginia Parker, Betty Beachem, Isobel Peabody, Frances McCoy, Helen Maynard, Sylvia Goodman, Margaret Newner, Inez Caddell, Jean Gielow, Aedena Squire.

To Form New Club

The Young Artists' club will be launched at a meeting announced for 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 2, at the public library, Colorado boulevard and Rockland avenue. All young ladies, both misses and matrons, who are interested in music, professionally or otherwise, are invited to be present. Meetings will be arranged for each Wednesday afternoon and period music will be offered.

The regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary will be held tonight, April 1, at the home of Mrs. W. F. Hanson, on Rock Glen avenue. It will be a regular "April Fool" party and members anticipate it will be one of the liveliest meetings of the auxiliary has had. The last meeting of the auxiliary was held Thursday night a week ago, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Squire of Highland View avenue, and had for its chief topic of discussion the welfare work being done by the organization.

Avery Farm Machine Company Bankrupt

PEORIA, Ill., April 1.—The Avery company, manufacturers of agricultural implements, this afternoon filed petition in voluntary bankruptcy before Judge Louis Fitzhenry in federal court, acknowledging liabilities in excess of six million dollars.

The failure was attributed to the agricultural depression of 1920 and inability of the firm to collect for implements sold to farmers in the northwestern grain belt, where agricultural credits remain frozen.

election next fall will begin. Persons registering at the present time, however, will not be again required to do so until 1926.

All transfers and changes in party affiliation must be recorded at the office of the county clerk before midnight Saturday to permit casting of a ballot next month.

Registrars Busy

Special deputy county clerks who have been placed in charge of registration here were rushed today, the beginning of the last week prior to the closing of the great register for the May election. In one instance a line formed before the little registration desk placed on the sidewalk. The clerks work on a per name basis and are not paid a salary.

Vanderlip Denies He Slandered Harding

NEW YORK, April 1.—Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, has filed answer to the $300,000 slander suit brought against him by Louis H. Brush and Roy D. Moore, owners of the Marion (Ohio) Star, formerly owned by the late President Harding.

The answer, presented through his attorneys, declares the statements made by Vanderlip on the transaction by which the paper passed from President Harding to its present owners were justified as "fair comment on matters and persons of general moment and interest."

The assertion was again made in the answer that Vanderlip merely repeated rumors in his address at Ossining and was without intent to defame or injure the plaintiffs.

FACES MANSLAUGHTER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Thomas V. Humphreys, San Francisco insurance man, listened here yesterday to the reading of a indictment charging him with driving the automobile which ran down and killed fourteen-year-old Olga Erlangson on an ocean highway. He will plead Wednesday.

HYPOCHLORHYDRIA—No. 2
Yesterday, in our first article on Hypo-chlorhydria (decreased secretion of hydrochloric acid in the stomach), we discussed the functions of the hydrochloric acid and pointed out what grave consequences can result from lack of it.

The free use of acid fruits were advised, because the acids of fruits can to some extent act as a substitute for the gastric acid. Fats, meats and fish must be taken in great moderation, but most other foods need not be restricted. Fresh fruits and vegetables are to be taken freely on account of their vitamins, and because it has been proven in many cases of disorders of nutrition that the lack of vitamins has been responsible.

We spoke of the beneficial effects of a glass of fresh fruit juice taken 15 or 20 minutes before meals. A glass or two of moderately hot water one-half hour before meals, a short time before the fruit juice, can also be recommended for the cleansing of the stomach. Unless the drinking water is of known purity, it should be boiled.

Because of the lack of the disinfecting power of the stomach in Hypo-chlorhydria, sufferers from this condition have to be more than usually careful that their food supplies are pure. It is best to have certified milk or boiled milk, and salads and fresh fruits should be disinfected before being eaten. The method of disinfecting vegetables and fruits used by the Battle Creek Sanatorium, so Dr. John Harvey Kellogg writes me, is the immersion for five minutes, after thoroughly washing, in a solution of one teaspoon of chemically pure chlorine of lime to 25 quarts of water. For smaller amounts you can use one-fourth level teaspoon of chlorine of lime to a gallon of water.

The diet can be less restricted in HYPO-chlorhydria than in most other diseased conditions, but large meals are not to be taken because they may stay too long or too short a time in the stomach. If the foods stay too long, there will be fermentation and distress, and if they stay too short a time they are not made ready for the digestion in the small intestine. Four or five

Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

Mrs. Marie Weekes of Norfolk, Neb., has been publishing the Norfolk Press for twenty-three years. She has been elected president of the Editorial Association of Nebraska, the first woman to win that distinction. She has also been elected vice president of the Tri-State Editorial association, which comprises the states of Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota. In the law of succession she will automatically become president of the latter body at the annual meeting next fall.

Mrs. Weekes was also the first woman in Nebraska to make the race for congress, and although defeated she received a very complimentary vote. She was reared on a farm and is much interested in agricultural problems and is a member of the executive committee of the Farmer State Nonpartisan Political organization. Mrs. Weekes is the only woman and the only person, not an active farmer, who is a member of that committee.

For two years Mrs. Weekes was state food and hotel inspector. Last year she was adopted as a member of the Santee Sioux Indian tribe at the Nebraska reservation and given the name of "Good Household." And her husband claims that her cooking is the best in the state.

Dr. Fannie Fern Andrews, lecturer and social worker, is the first woman to appear on the program of the American Political Science Association. Mrs. Andrews is the secretary and organizer of the American Schools Citizenship League, and a member of the International Committee for Permanent Peace. She is the author of "The American School," a number of works on international relations. Her home is in Boston, Mass.

F. F. ANDREWS

Mrs. I. M. Howard, of Cleveland, Ohio, is the only known head of a credit department of a national bank. She holds that position in the Central National Bank Savings & Trust Co. of Cleveland.

Mrs. Howard is a member of the Cleveland Men's association and had a very active part in arranging their recent annual meet. Of the Cleveland association's 700 members about 5 per cent are women.

Mrs. Howard is well known among national credit men and has attended a number of their conventions. "Tact, rather than education is what is needed in credit work," she says.

When Ginglin college, at Nanking, China, opened its doors for its present term, one girl in the newly arrived freshman class had traveled an entire month, by the slow methods of locomotion prevalent in the country, and through regions infested with bandits, in order to reach the campus on time. It would have taken her no longer to reach Nanking from New York than from her home village.

The incident is told by Laura H. Wild, professor of Biblical literature at Mount Holyoke college, to illustrate the great desire of Chinese women for education.

Calgary, Alberta, Canada has just one alderwoman. She is Miss Annie Gale, the first city alderwoman in Canada. She is seeking election for her fifth consecutive term.

Do your basting with the machine, having set it for the longest stitches. This is just as easy to pull out as a basting, and requires less time.

Mrs. E. C. Dickinson, 65 years old, of Springfield, Ohio, is believed to be the last woman to operate a spinning wheel. She was considered an expert spinner in her youth, and has kept up the occupation since. She recently gave an exhibition of her skill in a public exhibition building.

The British housemaid has declared her independence. Domestic service, she says, is a survival of the old system of paternalism in industry which has gone into the discard in other occupations. She asks for a uniform system of training, a standardization of hours and protective measures, such as are accorded to other labor classes. The alarming shortage of houseworkers has resulted in a public scrutiny of all phases of the problem. The housemaid will no longer be called a slave; she will be called a home-worker. A Domestic Service Committee, which is under the ministry of labor—a committee consisting of twelve women differing widely in political views and in social and economic experience—recommend the following:

1. Instruction in domestic science in all elementary schools for every girl between 12 and 14.

2. Advanced instruction in central and secondary schools.

3. Scholarships and bursaries for girls who wish to complete a specialized training.

4. Whole-time vocational courses in suitable centers for girls over 14.

5. Maintenance grants where necessary for individual pupils.

6. Open examinations with certificates of proficiency.

The training scheme has been offered with the hope of placing domestic service among the skilled occupations and thereby doing away with the objection, made by the girls themselves, that they are looked down on, ridiculed by caricaturists and treated generally in an undignified and unbecoming manner.

PROTECT YOUR CHILD'S HEALTH

Through carelessness the slight cough or cold of a child is often neglected and soon becomes serious. A few doses of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND, at small cost, taken at the onset of the cold would bring speedy relief. Be prepared, have a bottle of this safe, reliable cough remedy on hand, and give promptly when a cough or cold is detected. Equally as effective for older persons. No opiates.

ANSWERED LETTERS

Mrs. B. D.: You can make your start in business of shampooing by purchasing only those articles absolutely necessary to the work. As you will be working in the homes of your patrons, they will furnish the towels. The essential part of the equipment for you will be a rubber hose with a spray nozzle to attach to the bathroom spigots for rinsing the hair and a small jar of liquid soap, preferably a good castle.

After you feel you can afford it, add the long tin pan to your equipment that serves as a trough to catch all the rinse water, conveying it to the tub or stand in which there is the plumbing outlet.

George: Your oily skin comes from digestive troubles. Correct the cause to rid yourself of the tendency. A local method is to use bran in the wash water, or to make a number of small bags to be used in place of soap when bathing. Into each bag put a teaspoonful of the following, made by mixing together: a cupful of oatmeal, a tablespoonful of shaved castle soap and a pinch of powdered tincture of benzoin. This treatment will also help in clearing the skin of blackheads.

Peggy: You can only remove the fine hair with pumice stone. The coarser ones must be extracted with tweezers, however. In either case the hair grows again. Pumice stone in cake form is for removing roughened skin and small stains, or for smoothing the nails when there are ridges in them.

Hopkins: Tight clothing that interferes with circulation will often cause red hands. If you eat much candy or other rich foods between meals it would also account for this tendency.

Any of the honey and almond mixtures are helpful in keeping the hands soft and white during the winter months.

Dolly: It is seldom possible for one to retain the flaxen shade of gold which is the shade of hair in early childhood. That particular shade always changes to the lighter shades of brown in later years.

Ever: In a few more years you will be more matured, then your face will be fuller and the dimples more becoming than they are at present.

Daily Reader: Use very cold water to help close pores after the thorough scrubbing of chest and shoulders to clear the skin of blackheads. Possibly your liver is causing your skin to be darker now than it was a few years ago. Bleaching it will not help it much if the trouble comes from digestive troubles. A simple bleach is helpful in cases of tanning, and one of the best is cucumber juice.

Dwarf: At 17, you need not assume that you will not grow taller than you now are. It is possible to grow in height for another five years, unless you are maturing, which usually happens toward the end of the time when the natural height has been attained.

Miss B. M.: Circles under the eyes indicate a run-down state, or a disordered condition in the system; but, no matter what the cause, there is need for a doctor to take care of it.

Tomorrow—Hold the Head Up.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Dinner Stories

A professor of art whose absence of mind was remarkable had occasion to use a cab. Looking around, he espied one coming in his direction, drawn by a miserable specimen of horse flesh. The professor hailed the cabman and was about to enter the vehicle when, looking at the horse, he stopped, dumfounded.

"What's this, driver?" said the teacher of drawing sternly.

"A horse, of course, sir," replied the cabman.

"A horse, eh?" said the professor abstractedly. "Well, rub it out and do it over again."

Joseph Jefferson used to say that during his long stage career he was never associated with anyone showing undue familiarity except one individual named Bagley, his property man for several seasons. The man was valuable in his way, and so Mr. Jefferson tolerated his disagreeable manners until one night in Baltimore.

The property man got very drunk in the afternoon, and in the evening paid his way into a gallery seat. Mr. Jefferson was playing "Rip Van Winkle." The angry Gletcher had just driven hours and protective measures, such as are accorded to other labor classes. The alarming shortage of houseworkers has resulted in a public scrutiny of all phases of the problem. The housemaid will no longer be called a slave; she will be called a home-worker. Who's Who

Dr. William Montgomery Brown, former bishop of Arkansas, who faces trial on the charge of heresy before dignitaries of the Episcopal church, was once tried on the same charge, but the trial ended without definite action toward ex-communicating him.

He resigned as bishop in 1912 on account of ill health, and has figured since chiefly as the author of "Christ and Communism." It is upon statements in this book that the heresy charges were filed against him.

The former bishop is now 79 years old. He was born near Orrville, Wayne County, Ohio. His education was obtained at Seabury Hall, Fairbault, Minn., and at Gambier, Ohio. He was given the degree of doctor of divinity in 1898 by Kenyon college, and again in the following year by the University of the South.

His ministerial career was begun at Gallon, Ohio, in 1883. In 1891 he became general missionary and archdeacon of the diocese of Ohio. He went to Arkansas in 1898 as bishop coadjutor and in 1900 was consecrated bishop.

After his resignation as bishop he returned to Gallon, Ohio, to live, and he still resides there.

The theatre was deathly still, the audience half in tears, when Bagley's cracked voice was heard in response: "Only 80 per cent, Joe old boy; only 80 per cent."

If war left anything undone in Germany, peace has done it.

Children make constipation a habit—relieve them with Kellogg's Bran Children punish themselves terribly by ignoring nature's demands. They bring constipation upon themselves. They invite the many other diseases which can be traced to constipation. Immediate steps should be taken to rid them and keep them free from this disease.

YOUNG STRIBLING WALLOPS M'TIGUE

Light Heavyweight Champ Makes Poor Showing In Newark Bout

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, April 1.—The only athletic champion of this world who has yet to give ample and sufficient evidence that he is entitled to the honor in question, contrived to fool some of the people all of the time by a matter of some $5,000 at Newark last night. His name is Mike McTigue, his title is world's champion light heavyweight, and his idea of box fighting is to hide behind the nape of his neck after the manner of the hermit crab.

McTigue engaged in a return bout with Young Stribling, the Georgia school boy, on the occasion mentioned and only the fact that New Jersey does not lend countenance to official decisions prevented the championship from changing hands, as would have been eminently right and proper. Stribling led from the opening punch, carried nine out of twelve rounds and scored a knockdown in the tenth. McTigue did nothing all evening with marked regularity.

McTigue Stays North
After the joyous little pastime had been concluded, word was received that Columbus, Ga., would be pleased to have the boys do business there again for $15,000. It is to laugh. McTigue wouldn't venture south of Philadelphia with Stribling for the legal right to paint gold twenties on one-dollar bills.

The young man from Georgia can outstep this so-called champion of ours at any time or place, and McTigue acted last night as though he were well aware of that particular fact. He ran like cotton wash goods from the opening bell, and if he but had anything in common with the former meeting at Columbus, we can't say that we blame the good citizens of that community for becoming so affronted at Harry Ertle's draw decision that they were all for giving the northern guests a free ride on a thin rail.

McTigue gave the poorest excuse of a championship performance since he has been the writer's displeasure to view. He got an even break in the first round, carried the second and eighth, and spent the rest of the evening trying to stall his way to the final bell. It succeeded, to the everlasting regret of 11,000 customers who paid $40,139.10 to witness a foot race.

Stribling finally caught our hero in the tenth round with a right to the jaw. It was one of the few decisive punches of the encounter and brought Ma and Pa Stribling to their collective feet and McTigue to his knees in a neutral corner. He got up, however, and Ma and Pa sat down. Stribling had his chance to put McTigue out but didn't make the most of it, missing many a sincere sock in his efforts to end it all.

However, he has the satisfaction today as being recognized as the uncrowned champion of the division. He needs to fight McTigue no more to prove him the master. The matter was attended to with due formality last night.

R. O. Courtwright to Coach Ore Diggers

GOLDEN, Colo., April 1.—R. O. Courtwright has been appointed athletic coach of Colorado School of Mines, according to announcement yesterday by Dave Johnson, athletic director of the Ore Diggers.

Courtwright is coach at University of Nevada and is expected to take up his new duties here in September. He will have charge of football and baseball.

Courtwright is a graduate of Oklahoma University and has had about ten years' experience in coaching since he left the University of Illinois coaching school.

It'll Be An Ill Wind—

That blows these infielders into any lineup, for all have ability to clout the ball when runs are needed. Members of the slugging quartet are, left to right, Mike McNally, Lou Gehrig, Fred Lindstrom and Fred MacGuire.

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Written for The Evening News
SARASOTA, Fla., April 1.—

The old jasper who piped the remark that "It's an awfully mean breeze that blows nobody's business" must have had utility infielders in mind. The New York Giants, favoring here in their annual six weeks' rehearsal, have on their roster two young gentlemen who probably will be retained simply in expectation of that proverbial ill wind. And a bit northwest the New York Yankees have a pair in the same skiff.

Fred MacGuire, the Holy Cross star, and Fred Lindstrom, the schoolboy flash from Toledo, probably will be retained by Manager McGraw this season for the sole purpose of filling in at second, third or short, should injury or illness force one of the regulars from the lineup.

McGraw had a striking illustration last year of the value of having a peppery, young, ambitious infielder warming the bench for emergencies. Travis Jackson was second choice then.

Both Heinie Groh and Dave Bancroft were forced from the lineup for some time last season.

Jackson filled both vacancies in such brilliant style that McGraw found himself in the position of being able to lose Bancroft to the Boston Braves without weakening his team.

By virtue of his experience, MacGuire now assumes the first substitute role, but McGraw has two reasons for hanging onto Lindstrom. First one is that John probably couldn't waive the kid out of the big show, so scintillating has the former Chicago school boy's play been. And, secondly, McGraw wants Lindstrom to have a year's intensive training, believing that when Heinie Groh is forced to bow to Father Time the infield can be shifted to make room for Lindstrom and that the kid will be ready to step in if kept on the job now.

Mike McNally is not a newcomer in the Yankee bench. Neither is the job of utility infielder a new one to him. McNally is a vet and has spent most of his major league career warming the bench—ready to step into the ill wind's wake.

With the Red Sox, over a span of four years Mike filled in at second, third and the outfield. Moving to the Yank ballclub in 1921, McNally figured his turn had come to draw a regular berth. He did break in to seventy-one games at third and then Joe Dugan was purchased from the Athletics and Mike drew the bench job again.

Gehrig, however, is a newcomer. He will be carried for two reasons. First his ability to play second, third or short if needed and second for his ability to clout the ball.

Gehrig's hitting has been phenomenal to date. He came up with the rep of being a home run hitter. Huggins saw, however, that Gehrig was confining his attention solely to long hits and was, therefore, missing many chances to poke out timely singles. Huggins also noticed that his wrist style of hitting made him an admirable place hitter and has coached him along that line. As a result he can drop 'em in any spot in the yard.

COBB CONFIDENT TEAM WILL WIN

Rigney's Mysterious Back Trouble May Keep Him Out of Game

By NICK FLATLEY
For International News Service.
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 1.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb would be a perfectly contented manager if somebody would just assure him that Topper Rigney's back would hold out through a hard baseball campaign. With the little shortstop in shape, Tyrus would be able to sail forth with plenty of confidence to annex a pennant for Detroit.

Rigney has some sort of mysterious trouble, a kink that tangles him up sometimes when he's stretching for grounders. And the doctors can't just find it or define it. Rigney has not been himself this spring.

Nevertheless the Tigers have a ball club, a mighty good one. The outfit with the regulars in shape has only one weakness—second base. Pratt and Haneey are fighting it out for that job and neither guy comes up to the mark in a fielding way. Pratt can make the quick throws smoothly enough but he can't scamper around very fast.

Time is taking its toll out of Pratt's sturdy legs. Haneey is awkward and not just fast enough. Both can hammer the ball hard, however.

Everywhere else the Tigers are set to go. They have good pitchers and plenty of them. Daus, Johnson, Pilette, Holloway, Rip Collins, Stones, Cole and Whitehill can furnish enough sharp-shooting to carry them to the heights. The latter two are southpaws.

Hard Hitting Outfield
These Tigers have the best hitting outfield in baseball, though Bob Veach has been sent along. Mannish, Cobb and Heilmann will wreck pitching more often than any trio on any other club, and they have Fothergill in reserve.

Lou Blue is the best first baseman in the league; Rigney, physically fit, has few peers at short, and Jones is a steady, game and dependable third sacker.

The catching department rates high. Bassler, Manion and Woodall can all handle big league pitching.

"Golfers forced to go to nineteenth hole twice," says an account of a thrilling match. Most of us have to make five or six such trips before our thirst is quenched.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

The eleventh annual baseball season opened at San Quentin prison Sunday, March 23, with Walter Loveless president. There are four teams, composed of inmates, entered in the competition.

The first game was between the White Sox and Seals, the Seals winning, 7 to 5.

Seven hits were gathered by the Seals and four by the White Sox. The White Sox manager is a life termer and plays first base. He is now at 2368 Yosemite drive, Eagle Rock.

Some time ago Cantillon wrote Patrick and asked him to quit stalling and either say yes or no on the proposition, as the consent of the club was necessary, since Glendale was within the ten-mile limit and Los Angeles has the territorial rights of any club under the rules of organized baseball.

Patrick replied that he thought Cantillon's attitude was very preposterous and rude, and referred him to President Harry Williams of the Coast League. Mike by this time had his Irish up and replied to Mr. Patrick in very plain terms, closing by saying that in all his twenty-five years of baseball he had never received such treatment as he had in Los Angeles.

Prospects Slim
"I am not sure because they apparently don't want the league. That is their privilege. What makes me mad is the fact that they won't say yes or no," said Mike yesterday. "When the present boss of the Angel club wanted to remodel the Cub park in Chicago without depositing a $50,000 surety bond I gave him my answer right off. I didn't stall around for two months until it was too late to get action."

The matter is apparently dead for this year. Glendale will have to be contented with independent ball, which in any case will probably be better than that offered if a league was formed at a minute's notice. Kerwin is looking after all the probable youngsters in the southland and now has five straight wins to the credit of the Sox.

Is that to be considered a compliment or otherwise?
Some people claim there is no such thing as luck in baseball. Just the same, the showing the Chicago White Sox make this year will depend largely upon Chance.

CLASS 'C' LEAGUE PROSPECTS WEAK

Blame Officials of Coast League Teams for Not Giving Answer

A pretty verbal scrap has developed between Mike Cantillon, old baseball war horse, who was associated with Frank Kerwin in the formation of the proposed Class C League in Southern California, and President J. H. Patrick of the Los Angeles club. Mike makes his home now at 2368 Yosemite drive, Eagle Rock.

Some time ago Cantillon wrote Patrick and asked him to quit stalling and either say yes or no on the proposition, as the consent of the club was necessary, since Glendale was within the ten-mile limit and Los Angeles has the territorial rights of any club under the rules of organized baseball.

RICKARD OBTAINS CORNER ON BOUTS TO FINISH HIGH

Cream of Heavy Contenders All Signed to Fight in His Arena

NEW YORK, April 1.—The signing of Harry Wills to engage in a series of bouts under Tex Rickard's auspices this summer with Dempsey as the ultimate goal, means only one of two things, to-wit: Either Rickard has been given definite assurances that Wills and Dempsey may transact business in New Jersey, which we doubt, or the promoter is merely trying to embarrass Jim Coffroth by tying up all available contenders.

Rickard showed not the slightest interest in Wills until announcement came from the coast that Coffroth was about to negotiate with Dempsey. Barely more than 24 hours later Rickard replied by signing Wills to meet any one of three men—Firpo, Spalla or Romero Rojas—early in June with the winner to meet Dempsey in September.

That arrangement means that the local promoter now has four heavyweight championship contenders under contract. Wills and Tom Gibbons' by actual signature and Spalla and Rojas by cable. In brief, he has gained something of a corner on the heavyweight market and only needs to add Firpo to his string to be in a position to talk business with Dempsey.

It May Be, But—
The champion then would be forced to come to Rickard for action, since no other promoter could produce a leading opponent. Rickard's program involves a bit of quite legitimate throat cutting.

As for his promise to Wills of a Dempsey bout late in the summer much remains to be said. The writer has always contended that a Dempsey-Wills fight never will be held in the United States, least of all, on the eastern coast. We do not think that there has been any recent change in its status. Wills does not think that Rickard ever hopes to promote such a bout. Further than that, he is dealing in wholesale appearance when he holds forth a promise of a Dempsey bout to Wills when he has neglected the slight formality of getting the exemption under contract.

SEATTLE TO END TRAINING HERE

Indians Put on Finishing Touches at Sox Park; Play Saturday

Manager Wade Killifer of the Seattle club will lead his pennant chasers into Glendale Friday morning to complete the spring training for the 1924 season, following his departure from San Bernardino last night, and an agreement reached late yesterday afternoon with the Angel management whereby he uses Washington park today, Wednesday and Thursday.

It appeared at first that the Indians would start here today, but Oscar Reichel, business manager of the Los Angeles, at a conference yesterday afternoon gave "Red" permission to use the coast league park until the Angels come in from Long Beach Friday, and as the northerners open the season there, Killifer was very anxious to have his athletes on the ground before hand to get accustomed to the surroundings.

Following Killifer's decision not to come here until Friday, Frank Kerwin, manager of the White Sox, immediately scheduled a game with the Indians for Saturday afternoon. The park has been taken for Sunday afternoon by the Scots with their lacrosse match.

May Train Here
Killifer's decision to make Glendale a short visit is two fold, he said to a representative of The Evening News yesterday afternoon. He wants to see the Glendale park with a view to locating here next spring, and he wants to look over in person several of the youngsters on the White Sox roster. Killifer did not have much to say regarding his treatment in San Bernardino. There appeared to be some difficulty in getting crowds out to the ball games.

Although the star of the Indians here will only be of two days' duration, it will serve to put Glendale on the baseball map at least in the Coast league. Spring training affairs are talked over all season by the managers, and if Killifer is satisfied with his short stay here and the crowd that turns out to the game on Saturday, it will be a big boost for this city.

Gibbons Willing to Box Anyone,
"Gibbons Willing to Box Anyone," says a headline. The writer, however, must be declared out. I put on the boxing gloves with Johnny "Libane" when the featherweight king was in his prime. I outweighed him by forty pounds and he promised not to put much stuff on. Later, as I questioned him from the floor, he said that he had lived up to his promise but that I had stepped in front of one intended for the air.

Is Five Cents on the Dollar of Valuation Too Much to Earn?

If a business worth $10,000 earned $500 net income in a year (or $41 a month), would it be considered an unreasonable profit and proof that its prices were too high?

The railroads are in that situation today. The 1923 net return for the whole country was less than 5 per cent. As of December 31, 1919, the Interstate Commerce Commission gave to the railroads a tentative valuation of $18,900,000,000. With actual figures for 1920, 1921, 1922, and with 1923 conservatively estimated as $1,100,000,000, there has been invested in the railroads since this tentative valuation a net amount of $2,371,583,000, making the value as of December 31, 1923, $21,271,583,000. On this amount the Railways in 1923 earned an aggregate net operating income of approximately $997,510,000, or 4.69 per cent.

The Government guarantee of earnings expired August 31, 1920. If this guarantee had been continued—as repeatedly but erroneously claimed—the Government would owe the railroads more than a billion dollars. Could not earn the fair return of 5 1/2 per cent to which the Interstate Commerce Commission, under the Transportation Act, has found they are entitled. If the roads cannot earn 5 1/2 per cent in a big year, what will they do in a small year?

The Transportation Act provides that if a road in any year earns more than 6 per cent it shall pay one-half of the excess to the Government. The Act is, therefore, a limitation rather than a guarantee.

Give Transportation Act Fair Trial

The Transportation Act should be given a fair test and its merits judged by the results of a normal period of reasonable length. The year 1923 was the first since the war under conditions approaching stabilization. What the railroad situation demands just now is not more law but more confidence. The railroads have emerged from the welter of the war, restored their morale, made enormous investments of new money, and in 1923 handled a peak business with universal satisfaction.

The Transportation Act is the only really constructive railroad legislation of a generation. Previous acts were almost solely repressive. In framing the Act the public interest was paramount. The Act directs the Interstate Commerce Commission to "give due consideration to the transportation needs of the country and the necessity of enlarging railway facilities in order to provide the people of the United States with adequate transportation."

Give the Act a chance. Don't amend it. If the roads are let alone they should make as good a record for efficiency this year as last.

Constructive suggestions are always welcome.
C. R. GRAY,
President.

Sport Crucible

Finis has been written in the baseball career of Home Run Baker with the action of the New York Yankees in giving him his unconditional release.

Baker has not been active in the big show since 1922. The recent move of the Yankees was made to permit Baker to play independent ball around his home town at Trappe, Maryland. Baker held the world's record of three world's series homers until Babe Ruth collected four for himself. Baker still stands, however, as the "original" home run star.

Erminio Spalla, Italian heavyweight, will need a guardian when he hits New York—the land of wise boxing promoters and managers—judging by the Roman gladiator's deals so far. Erminio turned down an offer of about $15,000 to meet Gene Tunney, light heavyweight champ. Then he signed up for a bout in Argentina with his Firpo and Mr. Firpo hooked him on a proposition which will net Erminio about $4,000. Don't crowd, boys.

American boxing fans were not surprised at the recent news that Charley Ledoux had lost the French bantamweight title. Andre Routs recently slapped Mr. Ledoux for a row of souvenir shops in a twenty-round bout. Ledoux, a brilliant boxer and popular favorite, had reigned in the bantam class for fourteen years. In that period he had met all comers. He had given the best years of his life to the sport. It was only a question of how long he could defy old Dad Time.

FIGHT RESULTS

AT NEWARK—Young Stribling, Macon, Ga., won official decision over Mike McTigue, New York, twelve rounds; Paul Berlenbach, New York, knocked out Harry Krohn, Akron, Ohio, fourth round.
AT BROOKLYN—Jimmy Mendon, Philadelphia, won decision over Pete Zivic, Pittsburgh, twelve rounds.
AT BUFFALO—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo, knocked out Ray Kaiser, Cumberland, Md., third round; Joe Hall, Buffalo, knocked out Joe Goeft, Scranton, Pa., first round.
AT HAMILTON, Ont.—Johnny Leat, Hamilton, outpointed Johnny Buff, ten rounds; Howard Mayberry, Hamilton, scored a technical knockout over Willie Shaw, Detroit, sixth round.
AT CINCINNATI—Kid Rich, Oklahoma City, knocked out Kid Howard, Cincinnati, fifth round.
AT PITTSBURGH—Vic Brook of Pittsburgh defeated Young Xenia of Erie by technical knockout, sixth round.
AT PHILADELPHIA—Tom Coffey, England, won from George Godfrey of Los Angeles on foul, second round.
AT MEMPHIS—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul, knocked out Soldier Lee of Chicago, second round.

Chilean heavyweight says he can lick Firpo. Just Chli saue, that's all.

HELEN WILLS IN ASCENDENCY NOW

California Girl Tennis Star Has Great Future, Says Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Natural ability, a fine physique, an early start and splendid instruction combine to make Helen Wills, 17-year-old California girl, America's greatest tennis player. Like Susanne Lenglen, the sensational French flash and world's champion, Miss Wills was taught the game by her father. Helen was hardly capable of spelling c-a-t when her daddy dragged her to a tennis court and started to serve fast ones at her.

In view of this, the Californian seems destined to become the world's premier woman court champion. In 1921 she ranked fourth among American women players and in 1922 she was third. Steady improvement has been shown in her game and somewhat awkward footwork is all that is charged up to her by expert critics.

Has Good Chance
Miss Wills' improvement during the past few months has been rapid and she is believed to have a good chance of winning this summer from Susanne Lenglen. The young Berkeley student is going to Europe this spring and will have two chances to meet the foremost player.

The American star is to play at Wimbledon in the British championship and the French expert will no doubt be on hand to defend her titles. Chances are bright that the youthful Californian will get into the final round.

Miss Wills also is to take part in the Olympic games at Paris and here the two great players will undoubtedly meet. The Lenglen-Wills match would be a rare morsel for any lover of athletics. It would be an outstanding international match.

More Experienced
Mile Lenglen would have a decided advantage. She is more experienced and plays a more finished game, it is said. At 14 years Susanne was swinging a wicked racket and won the world's title at St. Cloud. She is a master of every stroke.

Helen Wills may not win if she meets Susanne this year but in two or three summers she should be the world's best. Constantly she is improving and now is said to be devoting special care to add to her footwork.

It would be difficult to predict the same thing of an American star in any other field of sport for the reason that most leaders as young as Helen are surrounded by evils bound to injure their chances of annexing the world's titles.

Latest dope from Europe is that they want Dempsey to fight three men. It will probably take even more than that to stop him.

not more so than are our spring carpets that make our foothills most alluring to all who visit them at this time of the season.
"The Shadowed Canyon," by J. W. Cotton, seen at William's Dry Goods store, 103 North Brand, is a decided innovation in portraying the wondrous majesty and beauty of a close-up study of our matchless coloring of earth and sky, as seen when visiting the numberless spots of interest in Southern California. This artist has arrived, as is said of one who paints only what is excellent in drawing, true in shade and tint values, as well as sure and harmonious as to tone and feeling.
The water color presented by Mr.
Cotton to the Tuesday Afternoon club is a gem of rich coloring that is well worthy of the distinguished hanging which the club
officials gave to it.

Presents Restful Scene
"Highland Pastures," by F. R.
Miner, at the Wallace Plumb company, 229 North Brand, is rich in its mossy greens, tender in shadow lines which allow the eye to enter the scene in a restful way that is highly pleasing. Another painting by this artist is shown at 119 South Brand, Brower-Hunter company, "West Shore of Catalina." It is suave and tender in treatment, a picture that especially calls for a top-light that it may be studied as a whole to reveal the deep beauty which is always satisfying.

"The Old Winery," by Mrs. Carlotta Phillips, takes one to the Verdugo hills of Glendale's early days. Here a strong sunlight sweeps the canvas and lights the distant hills, the waving trees and lingers on roof and rock and the old road; where true values in color are seen on all objects that go to make the picture a happy thought of bygone days. This canvas is shown at the Glendale Bootery, 221 North Brand.
Artist W. L. Cheever's painting of still-life, seen at the Wilson-Bell Hardware store, 227 North Brand, is like all of this painter's work, something tunelessly pleasing. This picture will prove an excellent study for those who wish to gain a knowledge of color values in their relationship to one another—a department of art

most difficult for the amateur.
Another still-life effect is by Caroline Gommel, to be seen in the Glendale Optical shop, 119 South Brand. A pleasing picture of spring blossoms and just the thing to brighten any library, den or bedroom. This painting has been sold to a Glendale art lover.

Wonderful Sunsets
At Schulte's Drug store, 251 North Brand, are shown several pieces that tell of the wonderful sunsets seen throughout the year in Glendale; another more important canvas by this painter is shown at 117 South Brand. Here the artist chooses the unusual in strength, light effects and technique and directs the observer to give the canvas the proper distance under a direct upper light, which advice applies to the majority of the larger paintings.
"A Daughter of the Orient," by J. P. Derby, as shown at the C. R.
O'Neal Stationery store, 231 North Brand, is a dream of physical beauty done in most alluring effects; the flesh tints are very true and, enhanced by the soft textures of surroundings, make this one of the gems of the exhibition.
"Verdugo Road," by C. L. Bullard, is seen at 229 North Brand.
This painting calls for special study and shows a high sky reflection on distant mountains reaching to the broad, sandy road, where the shadows of tree foliage are especially well rendered.

Interesting Display
"Sattentall Lake," by Mrs. Frazer, is very inviting in its purity of light and shade, ethereally interesting and shows a deep sense of refinement.
"The Old Mission," by Mrs.
Armstrong, at the Feas Art store, 123-A South Brand, is a most interesting painting; soft in values, colorful, and, though small, has the true artistic finish where lines are needed to be obscured, leaving a tuneless atmosphere that ap-

through train on the opening date of the tourist season. And, if it is possible, we may have it at other times during the summer season.
Officials of the Union Pacific,
the Santa Fe and connecting railroads also reported an extremely heavy passenger traffic at the present time.
While no additional trains are expected to be placed in service, it was indicated today that several of the present trains will be split into two or three sections, running close together on a uniform schedule.

Demand for Pullmans
That action will become necessary because of the unwieldy length if many more coaches are added to the present trains, it was pointed out. Pullman cars, especially, are now in great demand.
There are none lying idle in the west, and an effort is being made on the part of the Santa Fe, the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific to have a far greater number transferred here from the east.
"An era of immediate prosperity faces the entire Southland," said Legrand. "There is no way to get away from it, even if we desired. The people coming here from the east have money or they wouldn't be coming. It is up to Glendale and the rest of Southern California to prepare for their coming, to give them a royal welcome and to treat them as we would be treated if we visited their states."

Legrand, who is also Glendale ticket agent for the Pacific Electric, reported an ever-increasing travel between this city and Los Angeles which probably will result in additional trains and speedier schedules within the next few months.

Choral Club Members Prepare for Services

At the meeting last night of the Choral club, Mrs. E. B. Moore and H. S. Robinson entertained with vocal solos during intermission.
J. Arthur Myers directed the chorus of 100 voices in rehearsing music for the Easter sunrise service.
The Community Service orchestra is to meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the Harvard High school to work on the Easter music. Announcement is made that the new set of tympani have arrived and will be played by Roy Biddlecom.
peals to the lover of finished technique.
"Mountains of La Canada," by Mrs. Roy Ballagh, shows this painter to be a lover of strong and vibrant colors. Light and shade are given in abundance, showing the deep emotional nature of a true artist, which is the key to final success. This picture is shown at the Glendale Book store, 119 South Brand.

WOMEN RALLY TO SUPPORT OF BOBS

No Reports from Quarters of Mere Man Who Started
Row Over Hair

granted a divorce from an antiquity like him, his proper place being in a museum. Poor Tom—"just hair" being the length of his vision, he doesn't discern intelligence.

Long Hair For Men?

"Suppose women should concern themselves with what is so evidently none of their business and insist upon men letting their hair grow long! Why, the kind of a nuisance they would call it wouldn't look well in print. And some other hair-brained imbecile would declare them to be germ-carriers, just as they did the family cat a short time ago. What a howl would go up about each day's addition of dust and perspiration; about it being so hot and heavy; taking so much time to dress it two or three times daily, to say nothing of the expense of switches, puffs, curls, pins and nets. There is only one thing wrong with bobbed hair—it's too long.

"But don't worry, just a little more intelligence and the bob will be changed for a close cut or feminine shingle. Just think how comely it will be to duck your head in a bowl of water, give it a scrub, a rub and a shake, run the comb and brush through it a few times and lo! 'tis done in less time than it takes to tell it.

Exit Mirrors, Eh?

"Oh joy, sweet, clean, light,
cool and airy, and if the wind blows or it gets mussed, why worry? No nets are torn and no mirrors are needed, but a rub of the hand just like a man and there you are—all spic and span.
"Though if perchance we haven't an abundance of hair, we'll spend five minutes twice a week rubbing into the scalp a dessert-spoonful of crude petroleum and in a year have the most beautiful head of glossy locks that will far outshine some of these billiard balls wearing men's wigs. A real man requires an intelligent woman, instead of a rag,
a bone and a hank of hair.
"Yours for Good Sense."
"X. Y. Z." who writes on expensive stationery gets the following off her chest:

Happy Combination

"Upon reading the article in last evening's News about bobbed hair, I just had to answer it.
"Here is my opinion of Mr.
Watts or any man who objects to the rights of the female species.
There are no words in any dictionary to express my thoughts of such a person and a soft drink is too hard for such a small mind.—
X. Y. Z.

"P. S.—Bobbed-haired, married and happy."
Mr. Watts and his supporters, if he has any, are silent. The "bobs" and those who favor short tresses are either in the majority or their ranks are more closely knit together by the ties of the barber chair than the "anti's."
Opinions, Please
The Bobbed-Hair Editor of the Glendale Evening News wants to get the opinions of both sides.
He doesn't play favorites, nor will he get into the fix Mr. Watts now finds himself in by stating opinions. He is entirely neutral.
Therefore, communications, ideas and theories from either the "outs" led by Mr. Watts, or the "ins," the bobbed-haired misses and Mrs., will be received and passed on. May bobbed-hair either come into its own or be forever banned!
